SAILING AT STILLWATER COVE

-Spectator Notes-

Collin Kuster is due out of the Air Force soon to lend a helping hand at the Carmel Playhouse. He says he expects to be out within a week or two.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Speaking of the Kusters, Ted's activities have been slowed to a sedate pace by a foot injury suffered while spraying his Carmel Valley fruit orchard. First he hobbled about with a cane, but then abandoned it for a pair of crutches. But he's still able to boss the construction at the Playhouse.

- - - - - - - - - - -

What's this about Pianist Jacob Gimpel being signed by the Boston Red Sox as a $68,000 bonus player. Some copies of last Thursday's issue of a local daily noted this, but our copy merely said he was due to play (the piano) at Sunset School last Friday night. Possibly the Red Sox deal fell through in the middle of Thursday afternoon. Possibly all a mistake.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Jim Doud isn't the only one at Carmel Realty thinking at least occasionally about oil wells. Seems that Earl Matthiesen also has some land that's being drilled by oil hunters.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Gentle whisper comes down from San Francisco that the News is on the verge of folding. Further, the Chronicle staff is watching the News' fine building with vultures' eyes waiting for the demise.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Property owners in The Highlands voted 40 to 0 against a proposed motel on the ocean side of the highway near the Highlands Inn. The vote was taken Monday night. Plans discussed were for a 20-unit building on an 80 foot lot. And the visitors ould probably have to park on the roof of the structure.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Whenever Gordo, the singing parrot at The Nest, gets too carried away with his own voice, Jim or George hand him a bottle cork. This keeps him occupied for a while. Then he starts quietly singing again, getting louder and louder. Another cork. A plastic pourer keeps him quietest longest.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartlett of Pebble Beach and Kansas City are now staying at their western home. Incidentally, their son Hall's motion picture "Navajo" has just opened at the Carmel Theater. Hall produced the film and also had a hand in directing the documentary-type film of a young Indian's life.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Workers for "Ike" are hard at it getting signatures, ringing bells in cars, etc. in downtown Carmel. The petitions go to the state delegation to show Ike's strength if and when Warren releases the group. Incidentally, Senator Nixon is conducting a poll on his own to see how various individuals feel he should vote if released. He evidently wants to see how Eisenhower and Taft line up with the grassroots.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Charlie Reed, manager of the Highlands Inn, says he hopes to have the "fabulous new Sunset Room" open for the public by the end of the month. The room, where cocktails will be served, hangs over the hill and affords a fine view of the coast line. The rocks and water will be lighted, according to present plans.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Carmel Councilwoman Gerri Smith will be the subject of an article in the September Ladies Home Journal on "Women in Politics."

- - - - - - - - - - -

Travel notes: Jannie Aars, new Carmel High graduate, is going on a summer tour of the Dutch West Indies where she was born..... The Mast Wolfsons are now in Florence and are due home soon from a two-month European tour..... The Rev. and Mrs. Albert Seccombe will go to Virginia for their August vacation. The Rev. Russell Stains of Berkeley will handle the All Saints' duties in his absence.

MACDONALDS BUY RANCH

Donald and Betty (Egg and I) MacDonald have bought the Chester Lewis ranch at the top of the Los Laureles Grade. The couple plans to move here from their Puget Sound home as soon as final arrangements can be made.

The purchase includes livestock, and MacDonald plans to raise cattle while Mrs. MacDonald will continue to write. She revealed that she is working on two books at present, a novel and a children's book.

The Lewis ranch commands an exceptional view of both the Carmel and Salinas Valleys and includes about 1,030 acres.

BRADY HERE TO DEFEND ORD SOLDIER

Col. Raymond R. Brady, an eminent Salt Lake City attorney, arrived at La Playa Hotel in Carmel Wednesday. He has come to defend Sgt. Colonel Dean Chase, a Fort Ord soldier who recently wrote a much publicized letter criticizing Gen. Mark Clark. The letter, sent to Clark, was an attack on Clark's repudiation of promises made to North Korean prisoners of war by Gen. Francis T. Dodd while Dodd was, himself, a temporary captive in recent Koje Island prison camp uprisings. Forwarded by Clark to the United States "for action," the letter has led to court martial proceedings at Fort Ord against the 24 year old Salt Lake City boy.

Coming "in a spirit of conciliation," Brady hopes to secure reduced charges against the boy to "something less than a general court martial." Present charges are "behaving with disrespect toward General Mark W. Clark." Chase's maximum sentence, as presently charged, would be six months' hard labor and a dishonorable discharge from the army. "I want to save the boy from a penalty which would prejudice his whole future life," Brady stated. Admitting that he considered the letter in error, Brady added, "But there's no moral turpitude. The boy didn't steal. He wasn't AWOL... and while he should be punished, it should not be so severe a punishment as a general court martial."

Brady will have a conference this week with Brig. Gen. Vennard Wilson, who is acting for Gen. Robert B. McClure, commanding general of Fort Ord during McClure's absence. No date has been set for the trial, nor will one be until after Brady and Wilson have completed their talks.

Brady will remain on the Peninsula until he has either succeeded in reducing charges against the boy, or has defended him against the charges presently preferred. An Army reservist since 1922. Brady was a prosecutor in the Nuremberg trials. He is an old friend of the Chase family.

CARMEL UNINCORPORATED TO DISCUSS SHOP SITE

A general meeting of Carmel Unincorporated is scheduled for Tuesday at the Carmel High School. Principal items for discussion are rent decontrol and a proposed development at the Carmel Valley Road-Highway 1 intersection.

On the latter point, the Hatton family will present plans for remodeling the present farm building and the making of a shopping center at the site.

The meeting will be in the high school cafeteria at 4 o'clock.

WORK STARTS AT WOODS

Work has started on the multi-purpose room at the Woods School. If construction is uninterrupted it should be completed by the start of school next fall.

Taylor and Vial of Carmel were awarded the job after submitting the low bid of $34,960. The bid was considerably under the estimated cost. The school board noted that recent school construction costs throughout the state have averaged $15.89 per square foot. This job will be about $8.60. This is partly because the district already has some equipment ready to install in the school.

The money for the addition has been saved from current revenues. The completion of the project will probably use

CLEANERS TO MEET HERE

The regular quarterly meeting of the state Dry Cleaners Association will be held on The Peninsula for the first time next month. Between 200 and 300 members of the organization are expected for the meeting July 26 and 27.

Headquarters for the group will be at the Hotel San Carlos. In addition to the regular discussions of trade problems, a clinic on "finishing" (spotting and pressing) will be held Saturday afternoon.

James Burkholder of Carmel is director of the association from the central coast counties district. He and other Peninsula cleaners are making arrangements for the meeting.

CHILDREN SEE RODEO

The Carmel Youth Center and Recreation Department combined forces yesterday to take 45 children to the Salinas Rodeo. Tickets for the group were arranged through Fred Godwin and the Rodeo officials.

Because the school busses are being used to take campers to Big Sur, the group made the trip to Salinas in private cars.

Among those receiving certificates was George Keating, Rt. 1, Carmel, who has driven four years without an accident.

CREEDE GRANDCHILD

Mrs. Frank J. Creede of Carmel Point went to San Francisco last weekend for the christening of her grandchild, Laurel.

About 30 close friends and relatives gathered at the home of Laurel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Creede Jr., to celebrate this festive occasion.

VETERAN FUNDS FOR AUTOS

Federal funds are now available for grants of up to $1,600 toward purchase of automobiles for certain blind or crippled veterans of World War II and Korean emergency duty, Claude S. Estill, Veterans' Service Officer, reminded ex-servicemen in the Monterey Peninsula area.

Veterans eligible for the new vehicle grant may have it applied to the purchase of one conveyance, Estill noted.

He said further information and assistance in applying for the automobile benefit is available at 559 Pacific street, Monterey.

SALARY SCALE APPROVED

Final reading of the new salary ordinance was approved this week by the city council. The new salary schedules will go into effect with the start of the fiscal year July 1.

The ordinance provides for salary ranges with step increases within the ranges given for length of service and for merit. Designed for flexibility, the ordinance allows the council to make step increases by resolution to take effect immediately instead of the old system of amending the ordinance which took weeks before going into effect.

FESTIVAL LISTENERS TO HEAR B-MINOR MASS

Carmel's Fifteenth Annual Bach Festival, less than a month away, opening on July 14th to run through the 20th, promises not only to maintain its previous high standard of excellence, but even to exceed it. The monumental Mass in B Minor, which has not been given for two years, will again be sung, with new choruses added.

The B Minor Mass, which is considered as possibly the greatest choral work ever written, when given in its entirety takes something over three hours and is usually given half in the afternoon and the remainder in the evening, as "Parsifal" is given. The Carmel Festival has as its aim the giving of the complete work, but the difficulties of rehearsals, etc. make this consummation yet a long way off. Conductor Gastone Usigli each year removes a few cuts and adds a chorus, but as given in the Carmel Festival, the Mass still takes only something over an hour and a half, well under two hours. Even so, in the opinion of all who hear it, it is one of the most thrilling and rewarding of experiences.

Large numbers of students as well as adults travel from Los Angeles, Berkeley, San Francisco, and various parts of the state to hear the afternoon performance.

'BLACK BART' IN LAST THREE PERFORMANCES

"Black Bart," the melodrama based on the colorful life of the California stage robber of the '80's, currently the attraction at California's First Theatre, Monterey, has but three more performances. The show runs this Saturday and Sunday nights, June 21, 22, and has its closing performance on Saturday night, June 28.

"Way Down East," directed by Rhea Diveley, will open on July 3, and run weekends through July and August. This famous old Broadway-smash-hit played back and forth across the country to record houses during the early '90's, and is one of the best known and most typical plays of that period.

MUSICAL ART CLUB

The Musical Art Club will hold the final concert of the season on Thursday, June 26, in the Main Lounge of the Highlands Inn, at 8 p.m.

The club will present Alice Redwell Miller, well known pianist from Berkeley, in an evening of piano music.

Mrs. Miller, a brilliant pianist, has studied in Vienna with Leopold Godowsky and in Paris with Harold Bauer. She has also tutored with the Griller String Quartet. She is an active member of the Berkeley Piano Club.

The Musical Art Club will again begin activities in September.

ART ASSOCIATION SHOWS

An all black and white show of about 28 artists is currently on display in the Beardsley room of the Carmel Art Association. Pen and inks, washes, lithographs, etchings, and other works of member artists make up the striking show which will be hung until June 28.

A "Thumbox Show" of paintings smaller than 12 by 16 inches will be featured at the association during the month of July.

During August, two one-man shows are planned for the alcove room of the galleries, a collection of the painting and drawings of Linford Donovan, to run through August 15, and a collection of marine paintings by Doris Winchell Baker to run from the 15th to September 1.

Among the works are a large mosaic by Helen Bruton and a tarrazo wall piece by Margaret Bruton of Monterey. Other Monterey artists showing are Ellwood Graham, Barbara Stevenson, and Zev. Graham's contributions are pictographs both in oil and watercolor; Stevenson's are interesting abstractions in oils. Zev's is showing a skillful and humorous "You Gotta Pa Ta Get IN" done in brilliant colors.

From the Carmel area there is a water color, "Winds," by Margaret Millard, a superbly drawn etching by Jean Kellogg, and an abstract in oils by Richard Lofton.

From Big Sur Henry Miller's watercolor "Subaqueous Abstract" is on display, as well as a study in crayons by Gene Perrine. A redwood carving "Ancient God" by Harrydick Ross is included, and an abstract figure by Sandow, drawings by Robert Skiles, and a redwood "Horse" by Bret Weston. David Tolerton has contributed a display of his masks.

Varda, guest artist from Sausalito, is showing his most recent collage, "Nocturnal Confidences."

The galleries will be open today and tomorrow from 10 to 5, and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

DANCE RECITAL

Alice Ashford's Theatrical School of Dancing will present a "Dance Soiree" tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock, at Pacific Grove High School Auditorium.

Special costumes have been designed by Scardina for the program which will be divided into three parts. The first scene will depict a city park, the second an art gallery where the pictures come to life, and the third is a pink ballet, 'Invitation to the Dance."

STIX MIX CLIX

The Carmel Valley benefit performance of "Curse You Jack Dalton" (for the furtherance of a Valley Community Center) and the following is an evening of mixed acts, laughs, heavy old buffoonery, and a generally good time for all comers.

"Dalton," a melodrama in one act is a riot...with an especial nod due to a hilariously wooden Parker Kimball and a marvellously confused Patty Trevvett. Millie Kimball, incidentally, gets this reviewer's nod as one of the most attractive women currently seen in theatrics hereabouts.

The program which follows the melodrama is a melange of very many funny things, about the funniest of which is a treasurer's report delivered in the Benchley manner, by Charles Nason. Laden down with blueprints, ledgers, and a bewildered expression, Nason had the audience in the aisles from beginning to end.

Ruth McElroy shone too, in the varieties, with a deadpan rendition of "Elegant Recitations," half forgotten, which is a polished and wondrous thing to hear.

The P.O. review, which tops off the evening, is a burlesque on the recent hassle about the naming of the Carmel Valley post office, full of allusions to local factions. It has to do with the decision to hold a beauty contest, the winning girl to give her name to the P.O. The lines "The girl with the biggest mezzanine, will be the queen..." brought the house down, as well they should have. Richard Masten did the lyrics for this one, and Bill Pierce provided some original and tuneful music for it.

"Curse You, Jack Dalton" is highly recommended...a good show in a good cause.

WHARF OPENING TONIGHT

The famous comedy of wit and manners, "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde, will open at the Wharf Theatre this weekend, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings. The delightful tale of sense and nonsense will be the first comedy presented at the unique little playhouse on Monterey's Fisherman's Wharf since the highly successful production of "Amphitryon 38."

The sparkling dialogue Wilde has written for his comic characters has tempted scores of great stage personalities to act the comedy in professional revivals for many years. The most recent Broadway production starred John Bielgud and Mildred Natwick.

The presentation of the comedy at the Wharf is under direction of Robert Carson. An experienced cast of Wharf Players includes several well-known Carmel actors. Elizabeth Stevens, whose previous Wharf acting has included her notable performance in "Madwoman of Chaillot," plays the famed role of Miss Prism.

Curtain on all performances at the Wharf is at 8:30.

ways to be a friendly telephone neighbor

If yours is a party-line, your telephone neighbors will consider you a real friend if you'll keep these simple points in mind: Try not to tie up the line with lengthy conversations. That way you won't miss important incoming calls. Ask the youngsters to be considerate, too. When they remember that others may be waiting to use the line they're being good party-line neighbors. Always be sure you hang up properly after calling. These simple suggestions mean still better service . . . because they give every one a better chance to receive and make calls.

Carmel Valley Property Owners Assn. will put a bug in the county road commission's ear to do something about other Valley Road safety factors now missing: safety signs on bad curves, a white center line, removal of two particularly bad dips...

One of the funniest things (which only the cast saw) in the Valley Varieties hi jinx of last weekend... the displaced moth hovering distractedly around Ruthie McElroy wearing its former habitat, the chewed-up ancient bathing suit she wears in the P.O. Review..waiting for the moment it could repossess... A review of the Valley Varieties which ends its run this weekend (Friday, Saturday, Sunday) is elsewhere in TheSpectator.. but we would like to congratulate olio directors Byington and Ruth Ford, and stage manager Sam Brandt, technical director Charles Nason, prop man Mike Erwin, and joint M.C. s Bob Bratt, By Ford, Sam Brandt, on the slam bang timing that keeps the olio moving like a machine gun belt.. never a pause for breath...

One other favorite backstage story on the show, before we go, took place dress rehearsal night. Lorraine Marcucci, who plays Mother Dalton in the melodrama, was a few minutes late arriving and apologized profusely to the first cast member she saw--Roland Scheffler, Carmel real estate man who plays the villain role. To which Roland answered with his suavest leer: "We always make allowances for the tardiness of a beautiful woman." To which photographer George Smith had to comment: "Spoken like a true realtor, Roland!"...

La Fiesta de la Raza, the carnival bazaar coming off Sunday, June 29, at the Carmel Valley Country Club, will include a drawing sponsored by Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church..prize for which will be a genuine Arab filly donated to the church by Renee Poston...tickets are 50¢ each and may be bought from church members or at Postons In The Valley...Next week's Fiesta will have a fine display of booths and other concessions operated by Valley and Peninsula groups who will take home the proceeds from their individual events...Manuel Campos' 60-piece Mexican orchestra will play...

You Are The Most Important Person In The World, says Robert L. Whiteside of San Francisco, who gives his second Personology lecture Friday nite, June 27, 8 p.m., at Rancho Del Monte Country Club...Whiteside and his wife are leaders and founders of the S.F. Personology Foundation, which delves into personality appraising based on anthropometrical measurements (are your eyes wide apart?... is there too little space between your ears?)... Both will answer questions from the floor..The lecture is free and open to the public...

A "mobile creation" devised by Sammy, 11, fascinates the Frederick S. Farr family as the lad puts finishing touches on his work, which is suspended from the living room ceiling at their Carmelo street home. Looking on in awe and admiration are Nancy, 4; Francesca, 10; Mrs. Farr (Janet), and Fred. -- Arthur McEwen photo.

FRED FARR, attorney and civic leader, is a Carmelight returned. A former Sunset attendee, his varied career since then has put him in proximity to labor relations, the "Hut Sut Song," Puerto Rico, Augustin Lavinian (the celebrated Big Sur amok murder case of 1949), maritime work, and the Democratic party. A seemingly incompatible bunch of interests, they are better understood when one is face to face with Fred's boundless and catholic enthusiasms.

Born and raised in Piedmont, Fred was graduated from Cal law school in 1937, and practiced law first for the San Francisco Legal Aid Society. An agency of the Community Chest, the society offered legal advice and, if needed, defense to people unable to afford it privately. Often seeing as many as 30 people a day, Fred stacked up considerable legal experience in his two years there before moving into a partnership with Leo Killion in San Francisco. This seemingly staid association was enlivened when Leo, an otherwise proper lawyer, broke into jukebox fame with a song called "Hut Sut Ralston on the Rillerah." As a Minnesota boy, Killion had been fascinated with the songs sung at picnics and other folksy gatherings at home...an interest that galvanized into his mock dialect smash hit.

It was not the ubiquitous song, but the war that brought about a break-up in the partnership, when Fred became associated with the Wartime Civil Control Authority, the agency handling the legal mop up of Japanese relocation. As legal advisor, Fred's work was mainly concerned with seeing to the continued care of the crops which many Japanese had to abandon and protecting their property rights. During these years he was president of the San Francisco junior bar association.

In 1942, the Farrs moved across country to Washington where Fred became assistant to Captain Edward Macaulay of the Maritime Commission, and was subsequently sent to New York in charge of labor relations at the Port of New York. Since maritime workers had the right of strike during the war, the Maritime Commission attempted to forestall any labor difficulties by exercising advisory and supervisorial service over ships' conditions. Farr inspected ships' quarters and worked in liaison between

Would you call this the world's greatest invention ?

Perhaps not. For you recognize it instantly as the familiar container known as the tin can.

But . . . think for a moment of what it has accomplished.

It has changed the eating habits of America . . . helped raise the national health level. It has fed our armed forces all over the globe and provided them with a nutritious and a balanced diet.

It has permitted an interchange of products and a sharing of their benefits everywhere.

For example, Maine farmers can eat California fruits and Californians can enjoy New England baked beans. You'll find Hawaiian pineapple in Canada, peaches in Alaska, American meats in Norway, and an outstanding variety of canned foods in far-distant, little-known lands.

Through the years American Can Company, working with an alert, progressive canning industry, has pioneered hundreds of uses for this famous container—not only for food, but for such diversified products as motor oil, beer, paint, coffee and ball bearings.

The miracle of the tin can could only have happened in America . . . where a free economy offers such unlimited opportunity for a progressive, forward-looking industry to create jobs and make better products available to everyone at lower cost.

SALINAS RODEO SET

The city of Salinas was a rodeo-frenzied town today as 250 of the nation's top ranking cowboys descended upon the city to pit their skills against the toughest, meanest and man-crippling stock ever corraled for the nation's most outstanding all-western show, the California Rodeo.

For here during the four ensuing days will be seen the most spectacular super-championship riding, roping and bulldogging ever devised for a thrill-seeking western audience.

Making the show even more spectacular and colorful than ever before will be 16 trick and fancy riders, headed by that long-time cowboy favorite, Ken Maynard; Roy Rogers Liberty horses; Pope Pony hitch, Tom Parks Belgian draft team; Barbara Dodge's jumpers, and many more top notch events.

YACHT RACING BEGINS

The first races for points in the season's championship were held last Sunday at Stillwater Cove, Pebble Beach. The Stillwater Yacht Club expects to have 15 boats out by July. Anyone interested in sailing with this group may call Ralph Buchan at 7-6528.

Officers of the club are Ralph Buchan, Commodore; Kent Clark, Vice Commodore; Stuart Haldorn, Rear Commodore; Matthew C. Jenkins, Secretary-Treasurer.

The race committee consists of James W. A. Smith, Hampton S. Stewart, Jr., Hartland Law, and Gerry Henderson.

NEW MPCC MANAGER

The Board of Directors of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club have appointed Robert W. Campbell as resident manager of the club, effective immediately.

Campbell has a wide background in hotel, restaurant, and club operation, including the Wichita Country Club in Wichita, Kansas; Sahuaro Ranch, Phoenix, Arizona; Hotel Muehlebach Hotel, Kansas City, Missouri; Allis Hotel, Wichita, Kansas; General Brodhead Hotel, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania.

During the war Campbell served as Commissary Officer with the Navy at Pearl Harbor and has made his home on the Monterey Peninsula since 1950.

BICYCLE RACE WINNERS

The 50 mile Bicycle Handicap Road Race held at the Monterey Peninsula June 15 proved to be one of the most exciting sports events seen in a long time, according to the bicycle racers and spectators.

The tricky 50 mile course that started in front of Colton Hall and proceeded through Pacific Grove, the world famous 17 mile drive, Carmel, and back to Monterey, took the racers through all types of terrain, and proved to be too grueling a grind for many. Out of the 34 starters, only 21 finished.

The winner of the place class and receiver of the Schwinn Traveler Racer type bicycle with all accessories, and a large trophy given by the Amateur Bicycle League of America, was Gordon Wells, 495 So9th Buena Vista, San Jose. He is 27, a Class C rider and member of the San Jose Cycling Club. Second place was won by Jim Arbuckle, age 17, class C rider from San Jose. Third place was Ed Boggs, age 16, class C rider from Berkeley. Fourth Place was Alex Bellesiles, age 22, class C rider from West Los Angeles. Fifth place was Ernie Alger, age 30, class B rider from Long Beach. Sixth place was Darwin Dias, age 18, class C rider from Fresno.

ADVOCATE JUDGE SPEAKS TO STAMP CLUB

The Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club, meeting last Monday in the lounge of Carmel High School, heard a talk by Lt. Col. Lewis F. Shull, Judge Advocate at Fort Ord. Shull told of the Japanese occupation of the Philippines and of the stamps used. These occupation stamps are now collectors' items.

Col. John R. Wright presided at the meeting and door prizes were won by Capt. Abner Pickering, Mrs. Dolores Martin, and E. R. Yount. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mildred Mooney, secretary.

The next meeting, on July 7 at 8 p.m., will be a trade and swap program to which collectors and their friends are invited.

labor and management... a worthwhile effort since there were not, in fact, any maritime strikes during the war.

In 1945, the Farrs embarked for Puerto Rico, attached to that country's Industrial Development Committee, a group formed to promote the investment of capital in Puerto Rican industry. The movement was aimed toward creating employment to alleviate the poverty of the natives. Though the work was fascinating, the life and diet of a Puerto Rican hotel (the only housing available) were not, and Janet (Mrs. Farr) entertains a distinct lethargy towards fruit salad, etc., to this day.

A brief stint of legal practice with a San Franciscan firm preceded the Farrs' decision to come to Carmel in 1947. It was a year after this that Fred, together with Ralph Thompson, was appointed by the court to defend Augustin Lavinian, a waiter who had "run amok" and killed five other men in a gambling game. In a trial that was nationally covered, Farr and Thompson achieved an utterly unexpected judgement in which Lavinian was held guilty on only one first degree murder charge, a defense that was widely held to be brilliant.

An active Democrat, Fred is a past chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, chairman of the 13th Congressional District Democratic Committee, a member of the Carmel Business Association, and a past president of the Monterey County Tuberculosis Association.

As active as her husband, Janet Farr is a Cal graduate whose enthusiasm blesses the P.T.A., the League of Women Voters and the presidency of the Carmel Co-Operative Nursery School.

Three young Farrs, Sammy, 11; Francesca 10, and Nancy, 4, round out the Farr family... a household marked by good looks, good works, and (with innumerable picnics) good times.

The Amateur Gardener

GARDENING FOR HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

By CHARLES W. DELANEY

We are asked many times, "What do you do to flowers to get so much color?" It is really only a matter of planning, looking ahead and following simple rules of plant life. If we plant seeds of stock and snapdragons at this season, they will bloom in late fall or early winter.

June is the ideal time to plant perennials and perennial seed. These plants will mature and be ready to plant in the garden by September and they will bloom in April or May. Most of the perennials will become permanent or last at least three years at which time they may be divided.

The biennial usually lasts two years, but they re-sow themselves and for a few more years you will enjoy these fine flowers.

This week, we planted the following perennials--for next spring blooming:

Veronica longifolia--a beautiful tall-growing plant about three feet high. It has graceful spikes of deep blue flowers. Excellent in borders and the flowers are fine for cutting.

Anchusa Italica, Dropmore Variety--grows four to five feet tall with large flowers. It likes a sheltered position and rich fertile soil. It should be particularly sheltered from winds.

Columbine long spurred hybrid--grows three feet high. It likes partial shade or morning sun. The foliage is very attractive and it blooms freely early in summer. The colors are mixed, although the blues are very beautiful.

Lupin - Russell--the tall spikes are in all colors. They like a moist, sandy soil. Never put lime near their roots. Use leaf mold and a moderate amount of fertilizer. The flower spikes often grow to three feet in height.

Campanula - Carpatica blue--this canterbury bell is easily grown. It is a low-growing, compact plant about one foot high. Its cup-like blue flowers come into bloom after the columbine.

Philippine Lily--resembles the Madonna or Easter lily. It is pleasingly fragrant. It will bloom within 6 to 8 months after seeds are planted. It thrives in a loose, sandy soil and bone-meal is the best fertilizer. It grows to a height of two to three feet and forms beautiful groups of flowers. Does not require full sun.

Perennial Candytuft--blooms in early spring and summer. It is a neat, dwarf, compact evergreen plant covered with lavender pink flowers, excellent for borders, foreground planting, and in rock gardens. It will not require excess watering.

Statice - sea lavender - this blooms most of the year in this area. Masses of dainty lavender to blue flowers two to three feet high. The flowers may be dried and will last for months.

English Daisy, Bellis perennis - this is a biennial which grows six inches high. The flowers are very colorful, excellent for border or planter in drifts where color is needed. The flowers are quite large for the size of the plant.

Digitalis Gloxinioflora or Shirley Foxglove - also a biennial. It will bloom in spring. After the plant has blossomed it re-seeds itself. After the second year, it is better to start a new planting because the colors are not reproduced as in the original planting. The individual flower resembles the gloxina. In mixed colors they range from white and shell-pink to deep rose, with dark blotches from crimson to maroon. They grow six feet tall, and the flower stalks are often three to four feet above the plant.

The Delphinium, giant Pacific strain, should be planted now. The fresh seed germinates better.

Perennials started this month will develop into strong healthy plants, to be set out in the garden this fall; then we shall have beautiful flowers next summer.

VETERANS' DISABILITY ELIGIBILITY BROADENED

Many previously ineligible disabled veterans and many widows and children of deceased veterans may be eligible for government pensions under the terms of a law which has just been revised by Congress, according to Claude S. Estill, Veterans' Service Officer.

Veterans totally and permanently disabled by infirmities not incurred in military service, or widows of veterans whose deaths were not service-connected, were previously eligible for pensions only if their incomes did not exceed $1,000 annually, without dependents, or $2,500 with dependents. These limits have been raised to $1,400 and $2,700 respectively, Estill said. Death pension provisions also exist for the dependent orphans of veterans where both parents have died.

Estill stated that no automatic review of such rejected claims will be made by the Veterans Administration. He urged that, in order to determine their possible eligibility, these persons should bring their problems to his attention at Veterans' Service Office, 559 Pacific street, Monterey.

Gas and electricity are cheap in California!

In Richmond's new 13 acre Civic Center are the City Hall, Library, Auditorium and Hall of Justice

Take RICHMOND for example:

Typical residential gas and electric bill

In Richmond $8.76

In all U.S. cities of similar size* $16.02

* Average for the 20 U.S. cities outside California between 85,000 and 100,000 population. Based on a typical use of 100 kilowatt hours and 100 therms of gas per month.

P.G. and E. home rates are far below U.S. average!

The cost of living has nearly doubled since 1940, but P.G. and E. domestic rates are actually lower than they were then! Nothing else you buy costs so little—does so much. Let P.G. and E.'s bargain gas and electricity do more of your work, bring you more of life's comforts.
